The Bible tells us, that the early Church would often eat meals together and they would use this time to praise God. Gathering around a dinner table is often a great place to have conversations, whilst we are gathered together. Perhaps, during this season of lockdown, you are able to regularly enjoy family meals.

Why not use this sheet to create a placemat with some questions that you could use as a conversation starter?

Decorate it however you want, and we would love to hear which questions your family enjoy discussing!
