Welcome to Your Church

The fact that you are reading these words suggests that you are a new reader of this magazine. Either you are a newcomer to this area or you are a visitor.

If you are a visitor, we hope that you have enjoyed your visit to our church; that you have found it interesting, instructive and conducive to prayer. If you are going to be here at one of our regular service times, we hope that you will join us in the worship of God and we ask that you take our greetings back to your own church.

If you are new to this Parish, we bid you welcome and invite you to join us and share in the fellowship of God's family in Hughenden. This magazine gives details of the regular times of worship here. We hope that you will find something to meet your spiritual needs. The printed word is cold and remote and we would like to make personal contact with you, so please leave your name and address in the box at the back of the church.

Whoever you are who reads these words, may God bless you, sustain you and protect you, your family and friends, now and always.

Grant us Lord, faith to believe and strength to do thy will

October 2017

Dear Readers,

It's the 'season of mists and mellow fruitfulness' again and what a selection there is in our gardens and hedgerows. Have you collected blackberries this year? They have been really good and very plentiful so blackberry and apple pies and crumbles will be on the menu. The hedges are full of bright berries and nuts, good sources of food for our birds and other wildlife. Talking of wildlife, we are currently putting dog biscuits out each night for the badgers to stop them digging up our lawn. We are told this works and so far, so good!

Keith, in his letter from the Vicarage, talks about the One Can Trust which must be a lifeline for some families. I think most, if not all of us, are so lucky to be able to buy food or harvest fruit and vegetables when we need them and not have to worry about where the next meal is coming from. It is a very sad fact that there is such need in the twenty-first century.

A new school year has started and for some little ones, it is the start of a big adventure. The seemingly tiny tots walk into school in their new uniforms, in some cases carrying huge bags which appear totally out of proportion to their stature. Let us pray they settle down quickly and enjoy the world of learning.

From the Vicarage

Have you noticed how quickly our so-called summer has evaporated this year, as beach wear and garden furniture is put away for next year, jumpers and warmer clothes are dug out from the back of the wardrobe, and we have started thinking ahead to the clocks going back and a beautiful autumnal vista across the beautiful landscape of Buckinghamshire?

We have our Harvest celebrations at St Michael & All Angels – a Barn Dance on the night of Saturday 30 September in Hughenden Village Hall, followed by our Harvest Festival services the following day – Sunday 1 October, and once again, this year, we are pledging to donate non-perishable food and money to the excellent One Can Food Bank Trust, which supports many local families and individuals in the High Wycombe and South Buckinghamshire area.

Traditionally, at times of harvest, especially living in a semi-rural area, we are particularly mindful of the crops which grow in the fields in and around the parish – the blessing of the land which contributes significantly to the local economy and the food chain. However, statistically, we are far less likely to be consuming produce from our own garden, or local area, than a generation ago, although I am always particularly warmed to see the shelves of our stores displaying local produce.

Typically, we might be asked to pay more for local produce, but I have always found that it is more than value for money when I consider the quality, let alone the smaller carbon footprint which has been taken up in transporting it from farm to store to my larder.

The One Can Trust has been operating locally for six years, and in excess of £150,000 worth of food is generously donated by our community each year.

That in turn constitutes food parcels which have annually fed well over 20,000 adults and children.

Whether or not you attend a place of Christian worship this Harvest, I do commend to you the outstanding work undertaken by the One Can Trust. I encourage you to support their vital ministry to many of the more vulnerable in our local area.

You may well have noticed my intention to locate myself in the Hughenden Village Store and Coffee Shop every Monday during September, to see if anyone would like to say hello – and at my time of writing – two Mondays into September, I have been delighted by how well received it has been amongst the local community. So much so, that I am looking to extending my presence to also include the excellent Bon Ami @ The Pavilion in Naphill on Wednesdays during October. So, if you find yourself in Hughenden Valley on a Monday or Naphill on a Wednesday, on both days between 10am – 12 noon, during October – please come and say hello, as some of you have done already – I would love to meet you!

God bless you this Harvestide

Keith

Weekly Drop-In to Meet the Vicar

During October, every Monday I will be in Hughenden Valley Village Store Cafe and also every Wednesday at Bon Ami @ the Pavilion in Naphill, on both days between 10.00 am – 12 noon. If we haven't met before, if you fancy a chat, or even if you are just passing by, please do come and introduce yourself - I would love to meet you!

Babies and Toddlers @ St Michael's

Our toddler group started again on Thursday September 14, meeting weekly in the North Room, with a monthly Tiny Tots' Service. The first meeting after the summer is always poignant, having said goodbye in July to those moving on to the start of their school careers. We also said a (sort of – because we will see her from time to time) goodbye to our parent coordinator Sophie Green.

We welcomed Esther Communello and Claire Noble who are taking over as joint parent coordinators ('though Esther is off to Brazil for 6 weeks with Olivia shortly; we hope you both have a lovely visit with family). Since the Hughenden Toddler Group moved into church, it has operated on a joint basis, between the parents and the Church Team lead by Helen Peters and including Charlotte Tester, Nikki Fairbairn, Barbara Willson, Christine Powell, Jinny Orford and ... Jane Tyrer.

On the non-Tiny Tots' service weeks, there is a member of the church team present to help the parent rep. set up (clearing away is very much a joint effort amongst parents and toddlers) and to serve simple refreshments, coffee/tea/juice/biscuits. The children play with the toys in North Room spilling into North Chapel and church as they wish. (Church has so MANY hiding places, it's brilliant for hide and seek and the two aisles provide a good circuit for pull-along or ride-on toys.)

Each Tiny Tots' service week on the second Thursday in each month, except (usually) school holidays, takes a different format. This week - dubbed 'Piano Cake Church' by last year's children, involves:

- Nikki on the piano playing songs from the Tiny Tots' songbook, nursery rhymes and of course a Happy Birthday session;

- Barbara's famous cheese scones, 'adult' and 'childrens' cakes, endless tea and coffee;

- The children doing craft (in North Room) linked to the...

- Bible or message story told in Church.

The group is open to any pre-schoolers, accompanied by parents, grandparents or carers, and is attended by a varying group of babies and toddlers, up to a maximum of about 10 each week. Some – but not all - of the attendees are members of the congregation and the group is a useful way for mums and carers to meet others in the area.

Attendance at the monthly service in church is entirely optional, as is the eating of baked goodies; we find most people do both!

24/7 Prayer for Wycombe

News from three of the ministries we pray for on our committed prayer day. First of all The Wycombe Homeless Connection are preparing to hold their annual Big Sleepout again this year. It will take place on Friday, 24th November, at All Saints Churchyard in Wycombe, and also at All Saints Churchyard in Marlow. The event will begin at 9 pm on Friday and end at 7 am on Saturday when breakfast will be served before dispersing for home.

This event gives those who take part an opportunity to experience firsthand what it is like to sleep on the streets. Warm clothing, sleeping bags, ground sheets and a waterproof covering are essential in case of inclement weather. The church is available should the weather become extreme, and hot drinks and access to toilets will be available throughout the night. If you have the stamina, you may register for this event now. The WHC website has all the information you need including setting up a sponsorship page on the Virgin Money Giving (VMG) website.

The One Can Food Bank are preparing for their Harvest collection, which as you know the congregation at St Michael's supports each year. Today I received an email from Steph who is putting together a rota of people who may be able to come into the store to accept food donations during the Harvest period; all that is required is a welcome and help to put the food into crates ready for sorting. She is also in need of supermarket fruit and vegetable boxes, the shallow and usually green ones; so if you are able to pick a couple up when shopping they would be extremely welcome at the store.

Just now current volunteer opportunities are Food parcel packing team members on Thursdays 10.30 – 12.00 noon, Drivers on Thursday mornings 10.30 – 11.30 to deliver to clients' homes and to pick-up centres and Drivers – anytime to pick up the generous donations popped into their collecting bins at the supermarkets. Also they would love to extend their Board of Trustees so if you feel you would like to join in the overall governance, monitoring and strategy of the charity do get in touch for an informal chat.

I delivered some clothes to Jo Preston today and she intimated that the Dorcas Project would be organising Christmas gifts for the children again this year and that these gifts would almost certainly include books, puzzles, colouring books and pencils. Please watch the Church Notices as I will be giving more information about this in the weeks ahead as soon as a final decision is made.

Our committed prayer day this month is on Monday, October 9th, from 8 am to Tuesday at 8 am. The prayer space will be set up in Church House with all the usual facilities in place. Prayerfully consider signing up for one hour bringing the town of Wycombe, and the ministries working hard to make a difference to those in the greatest need, before our Lord. The sign-up sheet and the Prayer Points for the month can be found on the table at the back of the church. Thank you.

Noon – 3.00 pm

Our grandson Matthew, who broke his neck some seven years ago, needs a new electric wheelchair to replace the one we purchased for him then, and which is now broken. He is unable to use a manual chair. We are fund raising, with others as a new chair will cost between £3,000 and £4,000.

Any items may be left at 156 Main Road, Naphill or be brought to the hall on the day. Thank you.

Valley Friends

At our July meeting our speaker, Kathy Macaulay, gave an informative talk about the National Association of Child Contact Centres which are based throughout the country, our local one, the Chiltern Child Contact Centre, being in Amersham.

The NACCC works with children from separated families and aims to help them by ensuring their safety, promoting equality and celebrating diversity, whilst being independent and impartial. Individuals are respected and confidentiality is preserved. The Centre is valued as a supportive voluntary service that shares skills by helping children and their families to achieve better outcomes. The Centre works to agreed and approved national standards so that families who use it are safe and well cared for. It is a neutral, friendly space where children can spend time with one or both parents so that parenting does not end when a partnership breaks down.

Kathy was warmly thanked for her interesting talk. For further details of the Association, telephone 07527 109363.

In August we held our Pot Luck Supper which is always a most enjoyable and sociable time. To commence our Autumn Programme Janice Still spoke to us on 'The Work of a Magistrate', from which she had just retired after 33½ years' service. All magistrates are volunteers and can serve from the age of 18. Janice explained that as early as 1361 King Henry VI introduced laws that were administered by Justices of the Peace appointed by him. In 1714 King George I decided to replace justices with magistrates to hold 'Court Sessions' in allocated areas throughout the country. Until very recently Bucks had fifteen courts, but now has only two, which means quite a lot of travelling for those who have to attend. Janice recalled interesting cases she had dealt with over the years, including amusing situations as well as some sad ones.

We divided into groups and were given details of an offender and guidelines on which to assess the treatment or punishment meted out to him, giving reasons for our decisions. This was an enlightening exercise, enabling us to gain a better understanding of the work of a magistrate. Janice had obviously enjoyed her long career and was thanked for a very educational and happy evening.

Our recent outing to St Kathrine's at Parmoor for Afternoon Tea was most enjoyable. On October 6th we will have our 51st AGM and supper. Please bring a wrapped £4 or £5 present, a plate, dish, glass and cutlery.

Joan Steel

Mothers' Union

We opened our September meeting by singing the Mary Sumner prayer, kindly set to music for us by Sean Rourke. It sounded quite amazing.

Our speaker was Dinah Latham, a very inspirational lady who had been a district nurse and midwife and was now an author and trainee shepherdess. Dinah was inspired to write whilst walking her dog Harriet and her book, 'Walking Forward, Looking Back', tells of memories of her working life. We heard some hilarious stories from her early days of nursing when there were no mobile phones and she had to travel quite long distances on a bike, making sure to write where she was going on a blackboard which was displayed in her cottage window, just in case she was needed urgently elsewhere.

We said farewell to Jane Tucker who, together with Bob, her husband, is moving to Chinnor. She will attend St Andrew's church there and has promised to bring Chinnor Mothers' Union members to visit us next summer.

At our meeting at 7.30 pm on 3rd October our speaker will be the Revd. Hugh Ellis, Vicar of All Saints, High Wycombe and on 24th October there is a Coffee Morning and Bring & Buy from 10 – 12 noon. Both events are at Church House and all are welcome.

40 Years Young!

Clive Fairbairn's New Mozart Orchestra, which has had many associations with St Michael and All Angels over the years, is poised to celebrate its 40th birthday in October. This means that it is now several years older than Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart himself after whom the orchestra is named; Wolfgang died aged only 36!

When the New Mozart Orchestra gave its inaugural concert in London in 1977, Classical Music magazine's reviewer wrote: 'This was the most impressive debut of recent years; it deserves to last'. And so it has! Critical acclaim in all the national press has been echoed by the many great artists who have performed with it, including John Lill: '...sincere gratitude to the orchestra which, under your sympathetic direction, afforded me marvellous and inspiring support in the Piano Concerto.'

Since it diversified into outreach activities twenty years ago, the NMO has contributed significantly to literally tens of thousands of children's discovery of orchestral music in Bucks and neighbouring counties, through its concerts in schools. These have been funded by, amongst others, Arts Council England and The Rothschild Foundation.

On 26th October the 40th Anniversary Concert will feature music by Mozart, Tchaikovsky and Copland and, since it is taking place in London, Frank Hawkins, who is chairman of its trustees, is organising a coach and will supply tickets. Please call him on 01494 565050.

Angels and Vapour-Trails

*Silken tresses trail in the jet-stream.
Clouds like angel wings that Blake might dream and draw drift across the sky.*

*Climbing up the track by new-sown wheat green and neat in regimented rows
I puff frosted breath into blue autumnal light.*

*Above the clouds
silvery specks leave vapour-trails.
Two lines converge and cross
scribing a cancellation sign vast across the sky,
a vicious double gash as if to say:
"Your angel-fancy we deny,
Thus!
And thus!
Just a Boeing going home,
An Airbus passing by,
A layer of thin drift-cloud
That we aircraft over-fly".*

*The vapour-trails and silver specks have gone.
And still I gaze as angel flocks fly on.*

Good Companions

The next meeting of the Good Companions' Club is on Thursday, 5th October when we shall be entertained by 'The 3's Singers'. We meet in Hughenden Village Hall at 2.15 pm, have tea and cakes and a raffle for which members are asked to bring a prize.

New members are always welcome.

Hughenden Valley Apple Juice

If you have a surplus of any sorts of apples, you can bring them in bags to Hughenden Shop to be taken to pressers where the juice will be bottled for sale in the shop. Everyone who donates will get a complimentary bottle. More information from Louise on 07909 527990.

Church Flowers for Harvest Festival

We will be decorating the church on Saturday, 30th September ready for Harvest Festival on Sunday, 1st October. It would be lovely to see some new faces joining the regular team. You don't have to be an expert flower arranger as a simple arrangement in a vase or jug, offered with love, will look beautiful. Do come and help and if you need any information please phone me.

Who is that behind the Curtain?

Have you ever noticed the figure in a niche on the right-hand side as you go through the curtain into the North Chapel in Hughenden Church and wondered who it is? The following is an extract from the Church History booklet which gives a little more information:

In the south west corner of the chapel is a recumbent figure of a shrouded monk, as the tonsure indicates. He was also a priest, as is seen from the incised consecration crosses and in the hollow of the breast bone is a minute human figure, symbolising the soul leaving the body. It is evidently ancient, having been defaced by the Puritans so that we now have no idea whose memorial it is.

It is also interesting as a sculpture. Very few nude figures were made so early as this one and yet the detail of the carving on the arms, legs, collar bone, etc are clearly the work of a great sculptor who had made a close study of human anatomy.'

So we are no wiser as to who he is. Perhaps he was a monk who once lived in Church House a long time ago. As there has been a church on this site for over 900 years, he could be very, very old.

October Recipe

Syrup Hollygog Pudding

This is an ancient Oxfordshire recipe and was said to have been on the menu at Oxford University somewhere in the twelfth century. It probably had honey in it in those days as Golden Syrup did not appear in our shops until the late eighteenth century. It's a good pudding for a cold day!

Ingredients

8 oz plain flour
4 oz butter or lard
4 tbsps Golden Syrup, warmed
½ pt milk
3 tbsps water
Pinch of salt

Method

Rub the fat into the sieved flour and salt until it is like fine breadcrumbs. Add the water to make a pastry-like dough. Roll out the dough into a rectangle and spread with the warmed syrup. Roll it up and place in a buttered deep dish. Pour the milk over the rolled up pudding and bake in the oven at Mark 6/400F/200C for about 35 to 40 minutes. Serve with custard or crème fraiche if desired.

The prescription you can't get at the chemist...

As you get older, you should be given a dog on prescription. That is the unlikely finding of a recent study at Cambridge University and the University of East Anglia.

The researchers found that owning or walking a dog was one of the most effective ways to beat the usual slowing-down in later life. It seems that elderly people who own a dog are active for at least 30 minutes a day more than their counterparts with no dog.

And when it rains or is cold outside? No problem – for the study also found that older people with dogs were far less impacted by weather, and that they went ahead with walking – rain or shine, wet or dry. Overall, their physical activity even on miserable days was 20 per cent higher than those without pets.

The researchers confess: 'We were amazed to find that even on the coldest, wettest and darkest days, dog walkers were more physically active and spent less time sitting than did the non-dog owners on the long, sunny and warm days of summer.

Thus, the team has suggested that dog ownership or community schemes for dog walking could be prescribed to older people by their GPs.

from The Parish Pump

I can't see the NHS providing dogs on prescription, but how about dog walkers in the parish inviting non-dog walkers to join them on their walks? Would this mean lots of super-fit people? Ed.

News from Christians in the Community

We've had our committee meeting to discuss events leading up to Christmas. The first one will be a Coffee/Tea Morning to be held at the Naphill Methodist Church on Saturday 4th November from 10am until 12 noon. As well as the usual Traidcraft, cakes and raffle stall, there may be some Christmassy items for sale. More details on all things Christmassy next time.

Just a reminder that we do run a prayer chain for people who are unwell and we keep an eye on people living near to us. Remember, we are Christians who attend local churches – St Michael and All Angels Church, Hughenden, Naphill Methodist Chapel and the King's Church, High Wycombe.

Thank You

In our Intercessions each week we have been praying for Ciara Lowe and the following message has been sent by her family:

Thank you from all of us for your kind thoughts and prayers throughout the last few months. It has been a worrying time for the whole family. However, Flynn Thomas James made a very quiet entrance into the world, rather early at 34/35 weeks, but at a decent weight of 6lbs 2ozs. He is doing very well and is very calm, so Mum is grateful for that. He arrived at two minutes to midnight on 2nd September, a day before his Mum's birthday and five minutes before his Uncle William's. Again, thanks to you all.

Our Mission is

To enable all to follow Jesus Christ

We shall live out this mission through Prayer, Presence, Persuasion and Proclamation by:

Leading lives centred on Jesus Christ

- That is steadfastly based on the Bible and prayer.
- That is based on Jesus' example.
- By being ambassadors of Christ to our friends, families, neighbours and work and school colleagues.

Being seen and known in the wider Community by

- Understanding the communities in which we live and seeking to be fully involved in those communities.
- Building appropriate bridges between our church and our community.
- Taking every opportunity to share the good news about Jesus Christ.

Offering and receiving spiritual and practical support and development

- That is appropriate to wherever people are on their spiritual journey.
- That is based on worship that is honouring to God and accessible and relevant to all.
- And that is led by prayer that engages with the will of God and his purposes.

Heavenly Father, we pray that you will turn the hearts of those who would attack us away from conflict and in this troubled world grant that we are able to forgive those who wish us ill. Amen.
